2007 Schedule PG instructionsGeneral instructions

An individual is allowed an income tax credit on either Form ND-1 or Form ND-2 for making a qualified planned gift to a qualified nonprofit organization or a qualified endowment. See the instructions to line 1 for what is a qualified planned gift.

The credit must be claimed first in the tax year in which the planned gift is made. The unused portion of a credit for a planned gift made in the 2007 tax year may be carried forward for up to three tax years.

Adjustment to taxable income—North Dakota taxable income must be increased by the amount of the charitable contribution upon which the credit is computed, but only to the extent that the contribution reduced federal taxable income.

Qualified nonprofit organization. A qualified nonprofit organization means an organization that:

1. Is incorporated in North Dakota, or has an established location in North Dakota,
2. Is tax-exempt under I.R.C. § 501(c), and
3. Is a charitable donee organization as defined under I.R.C. § 170.

Qualified endowment. A qualified endowment means a permanent, irrevocable fund that meets all of the following:

1. It is held by a qualified nonprofit organization (as defined above).
2. It is comprised of cash, securities, mutual funds, or other investment assets.
3. It is established for a specific religious, educational, or other charitable purpose.
4. It may expend only the income generated by, or the increase in value of, the assets contributed to it.

Specific line instructionsName and address

Enter the name of the qualified nonprofit organization to which the planned gift was made. If the planned gift was made to a qualified endowment, enter the name of the qualified nonprofit organization that holds the endowment. If a bank, trust company, or other entity administers the planned gift assets or qualified endowment on behalf of the qualified nonprofit organization, enter the name and address of that entity in the boxes provided on the schedule.

Line 2

Fill in the circle next to the type of qualified planned gift on which the tax credit is based. To qualify for the credit, the qualified planned gift must consist of an irrevocable charitable contribution that was made using one of the following gifting methods:

Charitable remainder unitrust—To qualify, both of the following must apply:

1. The trust must be a trust defined under I.R.C. § 664(d)(2).
2. The trust agreement must contain a provision stating that the trust may not terminate and that the beneficiary's interest in the trust may not be given to the qualified nonprofit organization or qualified endowment before the earlier of (a) the date of death of the beneficiary or (b) the date that is five years after the date of the contribution.

Charitable remainder annuity trust—To qualify, both of the following must be met:

1. The trust must be a trust defined under I.R.C. § 664(d)(1).
2. The trust agreement must contain a provision stating that the trust may not terminate and that the beneficiary's interest in the trust may not be given to the qualified nonprofit organization or qualified endowment before the earlier of (a) the date of death of the beneficiary or (b) the date that is five years after the date of the contribution.

Pooled income fund—To qualify, the trust must be a trust defined under I.R.C. § 642(c)(5).

Charitable gift annuity—To qualify, both of the following must be met:

1. The annuity must be a qualified charitable gift annuity as defined for federal income tax purposes.
2. The annuity contract must contain a provision that states the annuitant's interest in the gift annuity may not be assigned to the qualified nonprofit organization or qualified endowment before the earlier of (a) the date of death of the annuitant or (b) the date that is five years after the date of the contribution.

Charitable lead unitrust—To qualify, the arrangement must satisfy the requirements of I.R.C. § 170(f)(2)(B).

Charitable lead annuity trust—To qualify, the arrangement must satisfy the requirements of I.R.C. § 170(f)(2)(B).

Deferred charitable gift annuity—To qualify, both of the following must be met:

1. The annuity must be a qualified charitable gift annuity as defined for federal income tax purposes.
2. The annuity contract must contain a provision that requires the payment of the annuity to begin within the life expectancy of the annuitant or of the joint life expectancies of the annuitants, if more than one annuitant, using the actuarial tables applicable to determining the federal charitable income tax deduction on the date of the contribution.

3. The annuity contract must contain a provision that states the annuitant's interest in the gift annuity may not be assigned to the qualified nonprofit organization or qualified endowment before the earlier of (a) the date of death of the annuitant or (b) the date that is five years after the date of the contribution.

Charitable life estate agreement—To qualify, the agreement must satisfy the requirements of I.R.C. § 170(f)(3)(B).

Paid-up life insurance policy—To qualify, both of the following must be met:

1. The policy must be a paid-up policy, i.e., all premiums for the policy have been paid, with no more premiums due in the future.
2. The gift of the policy qualifies as a charitable contribution under I.R.C. § 170.

Line 4

Enter the total of the charitable contribution portion of all qualified planned gifts completed in 2007. This is the amount that qualifies as a federal contribution deduction for the 2007 tax year.

Line 11

Enter on this line only that portion of the tax credit on line 10 that you actually use to reduce your 2007 tax liability. For example, if the allowable tax credit on line 10 is $1,000, but you only need $400 to reduce your tax liability to zero, enter $400 on line 11.

Lines 17 through 21

If you entered an amount on line 4, you must complete lines 17 through 21. If you are only carrying forward an unused credit from 2005 or 2006, do not complete lines 17 through 21.

Line 18

To determine the proper amount to enter on this line, see the instructions to the 2007 Form 1040, line 40.

Line 21

If you are a part-year resident or a full-year nonresident, and you are using Form ND-2, see the instructions to Schedule 3, Part 1, line 12, to determine the adjustment amount.
